- (b) appointing authority' means.-
 - (i) an authority empowered to make appointments to any service of which the employee is for the time being a member or to the grade of the time being a member or to the grade of the service in which the employee is for the time being included; or
 - (ii) the authority empowered to make appointment to the post, which the employee for the time being holds; or

(iii) the authority which has appointed the employee to service, grade or post, as the case may.

- (c) 'Authority' means the Punjab Urban Planning and Development Authority;
- (d) 'Chief Administrator' means the Chief Administrator of the Authority
- (e) 'Classification of Service' means classification of the services of the Authority into Class I, Class II, Class III and Class IV Services as laid down in the Punjab Urban Planning and Development Authority Employees Service Regulations, 1995;
- (f) 'employee' means any person appointed to any service or post in connection with the affairs of the Authority;
- (g) 'punishing authority' means an authority competent under these regulations to initiate disciplinary action against any employee and impose penalties specified in sub-regulations (5) (A) and (5) (B) of regulation 13; and
- (h) 'State Government' means the Government of the State of Punjab in the Department of the State of Punjab in the Department of Housing and Urban Development;

4. Suspension. – (1) The appointing authority or any other authority to which it is subordinate or the punishing authority or any other authority appointed in this behalf by the Chief Administrator, by general or special order, may place an employee under suspension.-

- (i) Where he is of the opinion that continuance of the employee on duty will interfere with the process of investigation;
- (ii) where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or
- (iii) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.

Provided that where the order of suspension is made by an authority lower than the appointing authority, such authority shall forthwith report to the appointing authority the circumstances in which the order of suspension was made.

(2) An employee may be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the appointing authority or the authority specified in regulation 4 read with regulation 13.-

- (a) if he is detained in custody with effect from the date of his detention whether on a criminal charge or otherwise for a period exceeding forty-eight hours;
- (b) with effect from the date of his conviction, if in the event of conviction for an offence, he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding forty-eight hours and is not forthwith dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired consequent to such conviction. \

Explanation. – The period of forty-eight hours referred to in clause (b) of sub-regulation (2) shall be computed from the commencement of the imprisonment after the conviction and for this purpose, intermittent periods of imprisonment, if any, shall be taken into account.

- (3) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee under suspension is set aside in appeal or on review under these regulations and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in term until further orders.
- (4) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a court of law and the punishing authority on consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further enquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the appointing authority from the date of original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until it is modified or revoked by the authority competent to do so.
- (5) An employee is suspended or is deemed to have been suspended whether in connection with any disciplinary proceedings or otherwise and any other disciplinary proceedings is commenced against him during the continuance of that suspension, the authority competent to place him under suspension may, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, direct that the employee shall continue to be under suspension until the termination of all or any of such proceedings.

- (6) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this regulation by any authority may at any time be modified or revoked by the authority to which that authority is subordinate.
 - (7) During the period of suspension, an employee shall be paid by the appointing authority subsistence allowance equivalent to fifty percent of his pay with usual allowances admissible thereon, but the appointing authority may, however, at its direction, after considering circumstances of each case, and where the delay in the process of investigation is not attributable to the employee concerned, enhance the subsistence allowance upto seventy-five percent of the pay of an employee who has been under suspension for a period exceeding six months.
 - (8) If an employee placed under suspension is subsequently exonerated of the charges, he shall be entitled to receive the full pay and allowances for the period of his suspension and such a period will be treated as duty, if however he has not been completely exonerated of the charges, the competent authority shall specify in the order of reinstatement as to how the period of suspension should be treated and payment of pay and allowance to him should be regulated.
